

The ReedSmith/McKesson 1L Diversity Fellowship Program

The Reed Smith / McKesson 1L Diversity Fellowship Program provides an award in the amount of $5,000 and a 2020 summer associate position to a diverse, first-year law student who has demonstrated strong academic scholarship, dedication to pro bono work, community service and/or leadership, and an understanding of the importance of diversity and inclusion in the legal profession. The $5,000 will be awarded directly to the Fellow's law school for application towards 2L fall semester tuition, and will be paid in addition to the gross $15,000-per-month summer associate salary. The successful candidate will spend seven weeks of the summer program at the Reed Smith San Francisco office and three weeks with McKesson's Legal Department. During the summer, the Fellow will work on a variety of projects covering multiple areas of law, including litigation, transactional work, commercial contracts and compliance and regulatory counseling.

ReedSmith

Reed Smith is a global relationship law firm with over 1,800 lawyers in 30 offices throughout the United States, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. Founded in 1877, the firm represents leading international businesses, from Fortune 100 corporations to mid-market and emerging enterprises. Its lawyers provide litigation and other dispute resolution services in multi-jurisdictional and other high-stakes matters; deliver regulatory counsel; and execute the full range of strategic domestic and cross-border transactions. Reed Smith is a preeminent advisor to industries including financial services, life sciences, health care, advertising, technology and media, shipping, energy and natural resources, real estate, manufacturing, and education. For more information, visit reedsmith.com.

Since 2001, Reed Smith has had an innovative, enterprise-wide Diversity & Inclusion (D&I) program in place, led by our Chief Diversity Officer and supported by our firmwide committee. Reed Smith's global approach to diversity and inclusion seeks to increase awareness among all personnel of the variety of socio-cultural influences present in the firm's workforce and how they impact its business. With lawyers around the world, Reed Smith as a firm is as diverse as the continents across which it practices and the clients that it serves. The firm recognizes, however, that diverse structure alone does not define true diversity. Instead, Reed Smith strives to realize the true value of its constituents – lawyers, staff and clients – by fully integrating their unique talents and perspectives into every aspect of its business. To do that, we have to start with a culture that is truly egalitarian, fully diverse, and 100 percent inclusive. Reed Smith focuses on creating a working environment in which our attorneys and staff respect each other and value and appreciate our differences in age, gender, ethnicity, sexual identity, economic background or experience. To that end, we focus on transforming our culture through “tone at the top” messaging and innovative training, mentoring, and sponsorship programming focused on inclusive behavior and actions. Reed Smith has cultivated a working environment where we value, reward, respect and celebrate diversity - including hiring, engaging and developing the very best talent in order to make us a stronger workforce and ultimately lead to the best results for our clients.

As a global law firm, we are fully committed to implementing change and valuing programs to support our inclusive firmwide culture. In 2018, we expanded our D&I program to all personnel - not just our lawyers. At Reed Smith, we don't want to just be known for our diverse headcount. We want to be leaders in driving the progress of diversity and inclusion.
