PROGRAM SCHEDULE

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 2015

2:00 p.m. Registration3:15 p.m. Skills You Need: Interactive Voir Dire Workshop

Judges are cracking down on the length of voir dire, making it important to do more with less. We will examine the process of jury decision-making and explore techniques for effective voir dire. We will then put these techniques to the test by selecting a mock jury. Using questionnaires and video clips of actual jurors, seminar participants will divide into teams and have the opportunity to inquire further about each juror as well as examine jurors' mock social media sites.

Christopher A. Bottcher

8:00 a.m. Welcome and Introduction

Jennifer Snyder Heis, Ulmer & Berne,
Cincinnati, Ohio

Christopher A. Bottcher, Sirote & Permutt PC,
Birmingham, Alabama

Jonathan Judge, Schiff Hardin LLP,
Chicago, Illinois

8:15 a.m. Trial Lawyer's Toolkit: Developing Business as a Trial Lawyer

Developing business is the name of the game, but many lawyers don't like to go outside their comfort zones. How do attorneys pursue business effectively? How can trial lawyers market their skill set in an increasingly risk-averse marketplace? Come find out.

Alycia Sutor, Akina Corporation, Chicago, Illinois

9:10 a.m. Trial Lawyer's Toolkit: Dealing with Surprises at Trial

It is the well-prepared trial lawyer's nightmare: having prepared for what was fairly disclosed, you are now confronting the unexpected surprises that can happen during a trial. Clark Hudson will discuss the different types of surprises that can occur and the strategy and techniques by which trial lawyers can keep their theories from being derailed and their cases on track.

Clark R. Hudson, Neil Dymott Frank McFall & Trexler APLC, San Diego, California

10:00 a.m. Refreshment Break

SPONSORED BY Knapp Petersen & Clarke PC

10:15 a.m. Effort Equals Success: Mastering the Facts of Your Case

It's a given that success at trial (or settlement) requires mastering the facts of your case. But how is that best done? And, how do you sequence your usage of those facts for maximum success? A leading national trial lawyer will discuss how going the extra mile can make all the difference.

J. Randolph (Randy) Bibb, Jr., Lewis Thomason King Krieg & Waldrop PC, Nashville, Tennessee

11:10 a.m. Trial Lawyer's Toolkit: Using the Internet—Ethically

The Internet and social media have offered new efficiencies—and opportunities—to learn about jurors, witnesses, and party opponents. How can these tools be used effectively and ethically? Using a game show format, legal ethics expert Lynda Shely will help you draw the line in the right place.

Lynda C. Shely, The Shely Firm PC,
Scottsdale, Arizona

12:10 p.m. Lunch (on your own)

1:25 p.m. Learning from Others: The Criminal Defense Lawyer

Most of us do not have criminal defense experience, but there is much to learn from those who do. How do you effectively examine witnesses who have not been subject to deposition? How do you deal with challenges of a client facing possible indictment? Former U.S. Attorney Doug Jones will explain how all trial lawyers can better confront these challenges.

G. Douglas Jones, Jones & Hawley PC, Birmingham, Alabama

2:20 p.m. Learning from Others: Presenting Complex Facts to Juries

Why does technology seem to be making cases more complex? Coming from two different specialties, Alejandro Menchaca, a patent trial lawyer, and the Honorable Susan Johnson, who has tried multiple complex construction cases, will look for common ground on the ways in which trial lawyers can better manage and prove complexities to impatient juries.

Alejandro Menchaca, McAndrews Held & Malloy Ltd., Chicago, Illinois

The Honorable Susan H. Johnson, The Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada, Las Vegas, Nevada

3:15 p.m. Refreshment Break
SPONSORED BY Hill Ward Henderson

3:30 p.m. Learning from Others: The Employment Lawyer

Employment trial lawyers specialize in challenges that vex all trial lawyers. How do you separate the employee from the employer? How do you prepare for and defend the 30(b)(6) deposition with an eye toward the possibility of a trial being necessary? This session will provide both the trial lawyer and in-house counsel perspective on these issues.

Sheryl J. Willert, Williams Kastner, Seattle, Washington

Rashelle C. Tanner, CRISTA Ministries, Seattle, Washington

4:20 p.m. Learning from Others: Legal Malpractice Defense

Legal malpractice defense is a unique animal in civil trial work. There is the challenge of defending the “case within a case” and other challenges familiar to seasoned trial lawyers. A seasoned legal malpractice defense attorney will explain how many of these skills are transferable to other areas of trial practice.

Brett J. Preston, Hill Ward Henderson, Tampa, Florida

Megan L. Pizor, Litigation Management Inc., Cleveland, Ohio

8:15 a.m. Complex Litigation: Multi-Party Mediations

When it comes to multi-party litigation, can mediation be an effective tool in managing the numerous facts, interests, and issues involved? John Van Winkle, a nationally recognized leader in mediation and ADR, will explain the unique challenges involved in complex mediation, as well as ways the process can best be sculpted to fit the needs of all parties.

John R. Van Winkle, Van Winkle Baten Dispute Resolution, Indianapolis, Indiana

9:10 a.m. Complex Litigation: Multi-Defendant Cases

Cases involving multiple defendants present challenges that are not relevant in single-defendant cases. Disagreements can arise regarding legal theories and trial strategies. There are times you have no choice but to be adverse to your co-defendant. There are times when co-defendants can work together. The risks and benefits of cooperation, and the practical limits of such cooperation, will be discussed by in-house and outside experts with insights on managing multi-defendant cases.

Marc R. Brosseau, Brosseau Bartlett Seserman LLC, Greenwood Village, Colorado

Cristin C. Bracken, SM Energy Company, Denver, Colorado

10:00 a.m. Refreshment Break

10:15 a.m. Complex Litigation: Multi-Plaintiff and Multi-District Litigation

Continuing the “complex litigation” theme, this session will focus on the myriad moving pieces involved in managing multi-plaintiff and multi-district litigation. Michael Gallub, a complex litigation specialist, will team up with the Honorable Peter Kirwan to discuss the best ways to address multi-plaintiff and multi-forum cases.

Michael B. Gallub, Herzfeld & Rubin PC, New York, New York

The Honorable Peter H. Kirwan, Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara, Santa Clara, California

11:00 a.m. Complex Litigation: Daubert Attorney/Expert Presentation

What are permissible methodologies for determining general causation? What about specific causation? When can an expert testify on compliance with regulatory standards? How can counsel best prepare a company expert so as to avoid a number of “Daubert pitfalls”? This panel will answer these questions and more, as well as provide commentary from the in-house perspective.

Stephen J. McConnell, Reed Smith LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Brennan J. Torregrossa, GlaxoSmithKline plc, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

12:00 p.m. Complex Litigation: Mock Daubert Hearing

Following the Daubert hearing “how-to,” don’t miss this unique opportunity to view your colleagues as they role-play their way through a mock Daubert hearing! Watch as experienced counsel perform direct and cross-examinations of causation and regulatory and scientific experts. The session will conclude with the opportunity for audience questions and comments.

Stephen J. McConnell, Reed Smith LLP, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

FACULTY

J. Randolph (Randy) Bibb, Jr. is a shareholder in Lewis Thomason's Nashville office. Mr. Bibb has more than 30 years' experience defending product liability and toxic tort claims and lawsuits across the United States. He has served as lead trial counsel representing product manufacturers in more than 100 jury trials in state and federal courtrooms from New York to California and from Florida to Washington State.

Christopher A. Bottcher is a shareholder with Sirote & Permutt PC and practices in its Birmingham, Alabama, office. He focuses on corporate, business, and commercial litigation, real estate matters, product liability defense, mass tort litigation, and the protection of trade secrets. Mr. Bottcher is the chair of DRI's Trial Tactics Committee.

Cristin C. Bracken is associate general counsel at SM Energy Company, and has been with the company since 2012. SM Energy is a publicly traded oil and gas exploration and production company headquartered in Denver. Ms. Bracken manages all of the company's litigation in addition to doing corporate transactional, oil and gas contract negotiation, and employment-related work.

Marc R. Brosseau is a founding member of Brosseau Bartlett Seserman LLC outside of Denver. Mr. Brosseau specializes in the management and trial of cases for clients in product liability, casualty and commercial matters. He has tried cases for clients throughout the United States and served as regional and national counsel in litigation for automotive, chemical, and pharmaceutical manufacturers.

Michael B. Gallub is member of Herzfeld & Rubin PC in New York City, specializing in complex litigation and class actions. He represents domestic and foreign clients in all phases of class action, multi-district and individual litigation in the areas of commercial/business, products liability, environmental, consumer and employment law.

Jennifer Snyder Heis is a partner at Ulmer & Berne LLP in Cincinnati, where she concentrates her practice in pharmaceutical and product liability litigation. Ms. Heis represents clients both nationally, in multidistrict litigation and coordinated state proceedings, and locally. She is active with DRI's Drug and Medical Device Committee and a member of the Law Institute.

Clark R. Hudson is a shareholder with Neil Dymott Frank McFall & Trexler PLC in San Diego. Mr. Hudson specializes in civil litigation with emphasis in medical malpractice, professional liability, product liability, and personal injury. He is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and a member of the board of directors of the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel. He is an officer of the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel.

The Honorable Susan H. Johnson is a district court judge for the Eighth Judicial District Court of Clark County, Nevada. She frequently oversees complex construction litigation and trials, and places a priority on courtroom usage, efficiency, and efficacy. Judge Johnson graduated from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, and is president of the Howard D. McKibben Chapter of the American Inns of Court.

G. Douglas Jones of Jones & Hawley PC in Birmingham, Alabama, represents individual, institutional and corporate clients in complex civil and criminal litigation, with particular concentrations in class actions, securities litigation, health-care litigation, white-collar criminal defense, False Claims Act and whistleblower litigation, environmental litigation and internal and corporate compliance matters.

Jonathan Judge, a partner with Schiff Hardin LLP in Chicago, defends manufacturers of juvenile, household, and industrial products in courts nationwide. He represents client interests during Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) investigations and helps product manufacturers and importers comply with the Consumer Product Safety Information Act. Mr. Judge is the program chair of this seminar.

The Honorable Peter H. Kirwan was appointed to the Santa Clara County Superior Court Bench in February of 2006 by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and is currently the head of the Complex Litigation Department for Santa Clara County. Judge Kirwan is also on the faculty at Santa Clara University School of Law and Lincoln Law School and has served on a number of the court committees while on the Bench.

Colette R. Magnetta is a shareholder at Acker & Whipple APC in Los Angeles. Her general tort defense litigation practice includes construction workplace accidents, premises liability, product liability, and transportation claims. Ms. Magnetta is the vice chair of the DRI Trial Tactics Committee.

Stephen J. McConnell, a partner in the Philadelphia office of Reed Smith LLP, is noted as “extremely smart and strategic” and a “very effective and experienced trial lawyer” by The Legal 500. He defends clients in product liability and mass tort litigation. He has also handled securities litigation, complex commercial litigation, and white-collar criminal litigation.

Alejandro Menchaca is a shareholder of McAndrews Held & Malloy Ltd. in Chicago, where his practice includes every facet of patent, trademark, and related law. Mr. Menchaca has extensive experience in litigation and prosecution of patents and trademarks, and has prepared opinions in each of these areas. He focuses on ANDA litigation and counseling. He has handled three cases for a generic pharmaceutical client, two of which were related to ANDA litigation.

Megan L. Pizor is an attorney and executive director, marketing and business development, for Litigation Management, Inc., in Cleveland, Ohio, where she works closely with clients in the development and monitoring of comprehensive discovery strategies for the defense of litigation where health, illness, or injury is an issue. Ms. Pizor is admitted to practice in Ohio and is the program vice chair of this seminar.

Brett J. Preston is a shareholder at Hill Ward Henderson in Tampa, Florida. Although his practice emphasizes the defense of professional malpractice and life, health, and disability insurance cases, Mr. Preston also represents clients involved in other serious personal injury, products liability, toxic tort, and commercial disputes. He is a certified circuit mediator.

Marygrace Schaeffer, a vice president at DecisionQuest, Inc., in Minneapolis, has been a trial consultant for over 22 years, providing jury research and trial consulting on hundreds of civil and criminal cases. Her expertise includes strategy and theme development, trial simulations, witness evaluation and preparation, shadow juries, post-trial interviews, and visual communications.

Lynda C. Shely is a frequent speaker around the country on ethics, risk management, professional liability, billing, unauthorized practice of law, legal marketing, and professionalism. She is a past member of ABA Standing Committee on Professionalism, the ABA Professional Responsibility Conference Planning Committee, and the Standing Committee on Client Protection.

Alycia Sutor has more than 19 years’ experience helping lawyers, executives and managers rethink how they approach leadership, culture development, teaming, and business development challenges. As a partner at Akina Corporation in Chicago, she helps individuals make an impact in how they lead, work and sell by helping them understand and leverage their strengths and interests.

Brennan J. Torregrossa is a member of GlaxoSmithKline’s Dispute Resolution and Prevention Department in Philadelphia. He advises and counsels the company on litigation disputes, litigation prevention issues, compliance issues, and governmental and internal investigations. He actively handles litigation by embedding himself within his outside counsel teams and vigorously pursuing the cases to resolution.

Rashelle C. Tanner is the senior vice president, general counsel, and chief compliance officer at CRISTA Ministries. Ms. Tanner manages legal and compliance initiatives for the 2,000+ employee international organization, doing business in diverse and highly regulated industries. She has been with CRISTA for over 10 years and was previously in private practice, where she focused on labor and employment law.

John R. Van Winkle, of Van Winkle Baten Dispute Resolution, is recognized nationally as one of the leaders in mediation and ADR. He chaired the American Bar Association’s Section of Dispute Resolution and has been a full time professional mediator and arbitrator since 1994. Mr. Van Winkle has been involved in ADR generally since 1985, acting as mediator, arbitrator, and trainer.

Sheryl J. Willert is managing director of Williams Kastner and a member in the Seattle office. She focuses on counseling, investigations, litigation, and alternative dispute resolution. Ms. Willert is a national speaker and writer on multiple employment related topics, including sexual harassment, age and race discrimination, and wage and hour matters. Ms. Willert is a past president of DRI.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION IN DRI: A STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation.

Diversity is a core value at DRI. Indeed, diversity, which includes sexual orientation, is fundamental to the success of the organization, and we seek out and embrace the innumerable benefits and contributions that the perspectives, backgrounds, cultures, and life experiences a diverse membership provides.

Inclusiveness is the chief means to increase the diversity of DRI's membership and leadership positions. DRI's members and potential leaders are often also members and leaders of other defense organizations. Accordingly, DRI encourages all national, state, and local defense organizations to promote diversity and inclusion in their membership and leadership.
