Please join us for our fourth Beltway Round Table Leadership Breakfast of 2015 featuring Linda Rabbitt, founder, CEO and Chairman of rand* construction

Linda founded rand* construction in 1989 and was one of very few female leaders in the industry at the time. She is responsible for setting the strategic vision for the entire organization. Linda provides executive direction, manages client services, and oversees all aspects of corporate and financial operations. Under her leadership, rand* has grown into one of the top general contractors in the DC metro area and has expanded on a national scale with licensure to perform construction services in 26 states.
