The legal hold landscape is changing due to the Federal Rules amendments and evolving case law. For example, proportionality factors may now be considered in setting the scope of legal holds.

In this session, Reed Smith's Records & E-Discovery (RED) Group will discuss those changes as well as legal hold "best practices" going forward and options for automating and streamlining the legal hold process.

Reed Smith is an accredited CLE provider in California, Illinois, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Texas, and West Virginia. This course is presumptively approved as follows: 1.0 general CLE credit in California, 1.0 general CLE credit in Illinois, 1.0 substantive CLE credit in Pennsylvania, 1.2 general CLE credit in New Jersey, 1.0 general CLE credit in Texas, 1.0 general CLE credit in West Virginia. For lawyers licensed in New York, this course is eligible for 1.0 credit under New York's Approved Jurisdiction Policy. Please allow 4 weeks after the program to receive a certificate of attendance.
