Please join Senior Counsel Elizabeth Carder-Thompson for an informative and entertaining review of many of the key regulatory developments and court rulings in health care law over the past 12 months. This fast-paced program (you will be amazed at how much we cover in just 60 minutes!) will provide an engaging look at the twists and turns of our industry's legal developments, including:

- Adventures in health care reform
- Fraud and abuse investigative and enforcement activity, including the Yates memo
- Rising reimbursement challenges
- HIPAA highlights
- Pharmaceutical and medical device payment and regulatory developments
- A variety of intriguing health care items you may have missed

Suggested attendees: In-house lawyers, senior executives and general counsel

Please log in 15 minutes prior to the start of the program.
