CURRENT TRENDS IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

The past two years have seen major shifts in the practice of law due to the pandemic and international arbitration is no exception. But international arbitration has also undergone significant recent changes irrespective of COVID-19. Please join us as our esteemed panel of experts in international dispute resolution – comprised of outside counsel, neutrals, and in-house counsel – examines recent changes to the ICDR rules, the U.S. Supreme Court's opinion in Schein, and in-house perspectives on trends in international arbitration. After the panel, attendees are welcome to stay to learn more about the launch of the HBA ILS mentorship program.
